A special workshop sponsored by Siemens Healthineers to highlight the value of MRI in the assessment of the post operative breast

The workshop features:

- One-hour duration sessions to go through 10 cases and fill a structured report.
- On Friday afternoon (4 o'clock), a case-based lecture will review and discuss the presented cases.

After completion of the workshop, you would be able to:

1. Recognize the normal spectrum of post-operative breast MRI findings following breast-conserving surgery, mastectomy, and reconstructive procedures.
2. Differentiate expected post-treatment changes from imaging features suggestive of residual or recurrent breast cancer.
3. Identify common post-operative complications, including seroma, fat necrosis, hematoma, infection, and implant-related abnormalities, on breast MRI.
4. Recognize common diagnostic pitfalls and avoid false-positive and false-negative interpretations in post-operative breast MRI.

GE HealthCare

The workshop features:

- One-hour duration sessions to go through 10 cases and write a full report.
- On Friday morning (11 O'clock) a case-based lecture will review and discuss the presented cases.

After completion of the workshop, you would be able to:

1. Recognize the imaging features of benign and malignant breast lesions on contrast-enhanced mammography (CEM).
2. Identify common causes of false-positive and false-negative CEM findings and understand the underlying imaging and pathological factors.
3. Differentiate true pathological enhancement from physiological enhancement and imaging artifacts that may mimic disease.

This Siemens-sponsored hands-on workshop provides participants with practical knowledge and skills in standard and advanced mammography techniques. Through interactive lectures, workstation demonstrations, and case-based learning, participants will enhance their understanding of patient positioning, image acquisition, and modern breast imaging technologies to support accurate diagnosis.

Workshop Duration: 30 min

Workshop Activities

- Live workstation demonstration (Simulators)
- Hands-on Simulation workstation practice
- Group discussion
- Interactive technique cases
- Question-and-answer session

Certificate:

Participants who successfully complete the workshop will receive a Certificate of Attendance sponsored by Siemens.

A special workshop sponsored by Siemens Healthineers to highlight the value of MRI in the assessment of the post operative breast

The workshop features:

- One-hour duration sessions to go through 10 cases and fill a structured report.
- On Friday afternoon (4 o'clock), a case-based lecture will review and discuss the presented cases.

After completion of the workshop, you would be able to:

1. Recognize the normal spectrum of post-operative breast MRI findings following breast-conserving surgery, mastectomy, and reconstructive procedures.
2. Differentiate expected post-treatment changes from imaging features suggestive of residual or recurrent breast cancer.
3. Identify common post-operative complications, including seroma, fat necrosis, hematoma, infection, and implant-related abnormalities, on breast MRI.
4. Recognize common diagnostic pitfalls and avoid false-positive and false-negative interpretations in post-operative breast MRI.
